EX11F-CA:

During 2010, Joe had total trading proceeds over $ 20 million and total roundtrip trades of over 1,000 per review of the GTT TradeLog reports. Trading was Joe's only occupation in 2010 and his source of livelihood. Joe qualifies as a "trader in commodities" (i.e., he has trader tax status), so he reports all his trading business expenses on Schedule C (Business Profit and Loss).

Since Joe did NOT elect mark-to-market accounting (MTM) on his commodities trading, he reports his commodities losses directly on Form 6781; here they are then carried to Schedule D as a capital loss. Without MTM, Joe is really hurt. He is stuck with a capital loss limitation of $3,000 and a very large capital loss carryover to 2011. (Note that if Joe had Commodities gains in the last 3 years, he could elect to carry back the 2010 Section 1256 loss to these gains.)

Net Operating Losses: Joe does benefit from having a Net Operating Loss (NOL) from his Schedule C business expenses with trader tax status. His NOL is comprised of his Schedule C trading business expenses. Joe has an option to carry-back the 2010 NOL two years, starting with tax year 2008 to get a quick NOL refund by filing Form 1045. If Joe decides not to carry-back the 2010 NOL, he can elect with the filing of his 2010 tax return to forgo the carry-back and simply carry-forward the 2010 NOL to tax year 2011.

Note to Schedules C and Form 6781 in connection with taxpayer's business activity:
"trader in commodities"

TAXPAYER QUALIFIES AS A "TRADER IN COMMODITIES"

SUMMARY

Taxpayer qualifies as a "trader in commodities" for 2010. Taxpayer's trading business expenses are reported on Schedule C and his commodities trading gains and losses are reported on Form 6781.

=====

Trader in Commodities is a business the same as Trader in Securities.

Taxpayer operated a trading business, in accordance with the definition below, during all of 2010. Considerable time spent every trading day, consistent and frequent number of trades, and trading proceeds all support taxpayer's rising to the level of conducting this activity as a business.

We excerpt IRS Publication 550, Chapter 4 - Special Rules for Traders Securities. (See our added notes in parenthesis).

Special rules apply if you are a trader in securities in the business of buying and selling securities for your own account. To be engaged in business as a trader in securities, you must meet all the following conditions. (Taxpayer met all the following conditions for tax year 2010).

..You must seek to profit from daily market movements in the prices of securities and not from dividends, interest, or capital appreciation.

..Your activity must be substantial.

..You must carry on the activity with continuity and regularity.

The following facts and circumstances should be considered in determining if your activity is a securities trading business.

..Typical holding periods for securities bought and sold. (Taxpayer had very short holding periods).

..The frequency and dollar amount of your trades during the year. (Taxpayer traded frequently with lower dollar amounts - high turnover).

..The extent to which you pursue the activity to produce income for a livelihood. (Taxpayer's intention is to earn a living from this trading business activity).

..The amount of time you devote to the activity. (Taxpayer spends a good part of every day on this activity).

Note.

You may be a trader in some securities and have other securities you hold for investment. The special rules discussed here do not apply to the securities held for investment. You must keep detailed records to distinguish the securities. The securities held for investment must be identified as such in your records on the day you got them (for example, by holding them in a separate brokerage account). (If taxpayer has investment securities they are clearly "segregated" from his trading securities in accordance with current IRS regulations).

How To Report.

Transactions from trading activities result in capital gains and losses and must be reported on Schedule D (Form 1040). Losses from these transactions are subject to the limit on capital losses explained earlier in this chapter.

Expenses.

Interest expense and other investment expenses that an investor would deduct on Schedule A (Form 1040) are deducted by a trader on Schedule C (Form 1040), Profit or Loss From Business, if the expenses are from the trading business. Commissions and other costs of acquiring or disposing of securities are not deductible but must be used to figure gain or loss. The limit on investment interest expense, which applies to investors, does not apply to interest paid or incurred in a trading business. (Taxpayer duly reported his trading business expenses on Schedule C: trader in commodities)

Taxpayer's trading gains are exempt from self-employment taxation.

Taxpayer is exempt from self-employment taxation because taxpayer is a trader in commodities and not a "commodity dealer", as defined in IRC Section 1402 Definitions - Net earnings from self-employment.

Future Tax Savings

- ☐ If the medical insurance premiums currently being paid by the taxpayer are for a high deductible health plan, consideration should be given to opening a Health Savings Account (HSA) under IRC Section 223. Qualified HSA contributions provide for an above-the-line deduction. In 2011, the policy must have an annual deductible of at least $1,200 ($2,400 for family coverage) and maximum out-of-pocket expenses not exceeding $5,950 ($11,900 for family coverage). If the taxpayer participates for the entire year, contributions up to the amount of the annual deductible, but not exceeding $3,050 ($6,150 for family coverage) could be deducted on the tax return. In 2011, catch-up contributions of $1,000 can be made by taxpayers between age 55 and 65. Distributions and earnings from HSA's are not taxed provided they are used to pay qualified medical expenses.

Tax Tips

- ☐ Taxable income is $-45,502, placing the taxpayer in a 0% marginal tax bracket. Based on 2010 tax rates, income would have to increase by over $45,502 in order for any income to begin being taxed in the 10% bracket. This may be used as a guide in determining the advantages or disadvantages of receiving discretionary income in 2011.
- ☐ The taxpayer has a long-term capital loss carryover. Since long-term capital gains are taxed at a lower rate than short-term capital gains, it is more advantageous to use short-term gains to offset the carryover. If the taxpayer plans on recognizing gains in 2011 and has a choice between recognizing short-term gains or long-term gains, an overall greater tax savings will be realized by recognizing short-term gains up to the amount of the loss carryover.
- ☐ Schedule C for Joe Trader no MTM Com Loss Ex11 (1) : The address of the taxpayer's business is the same as the home address, but no expenses for business use of a home were deducted. If the home is used regularly and exclusively for the business, the taxpayer may qualify for the business use of home deduction.
- ☐ The costs associated with maintaining a home office can be deducted only if strict IRS guidelines are met. Ensure that the home office is used exclusively for business, that the taxpayer uses the office to conduct administrative or management activities of a trade or business, and that there is no other fixed location of the trade or business where the taxpayer conducts substantial administrative or management activities for the business. Refer to IRS Publication 587 for additional rules related to the home office deduction.
- ☐ For home sales operations, ensure that storage space is included in the calculation of business square footage. Additional storage space can be underutilized spaces such as attics and basements. The storage space must be used on a regular basis and be an identifiable separate space suitable for storage.

Compliance Tips

- ☐ You cannot deduct a cash contribution, regardless of the amount, unless you keep as a record of the contribution a bank record (such as a canceled check, a bank copy of a canceled check, or a bank statement containing the name of the charity, the date, and the amount) or a written communication from the charity. The written communication must include the name of the charity, date of the contribution, and amount of the contribution.
- ☐ Under audit, charitable contributions of $250 or more require a written receipt, letter, postcard, or email from the organization to substantiate the donation. A cancelled check is not sufficient evidence for a cash donation of $250 or more. The receipt should show the date of the donation, the dollar amount of the money gift or description of the property donated, and the estimated value of goods or services received in return for the donation. In figuring whether a gift is $250 or more, separate and regular donations of less than $250 to the same organization do not need to be combined.
- ☐ Schedule C for Joe Trader no MTM Com Loss Ex11 (1) : Ensure that all required information returns such as Form 1099, 1098, 5498, and W-2G have been filed. Penalties for not filing required information returns can be fairly high.
- ☐ Schedule C for Joe Trader no MTM Com Loss Ex11 (1) : Travel, meals, and entertainment expenses draw close attention from the IRS under examination. Entertainment expenses must be ordinary and necessary, and common practice for the type of industry. In addition to the general record keeping requirements, the following information may be required: dates and duration of business discussions that took place, nature of the business conducted, the business benefit derived or expected to be derived, identification of the person(s) entertained, and whether the site of the meeting was vacation oriented. Ensure that adequate records exist to support the travel, meals, and entertainment expense.

* Typical amounts are estimates derived from IRS Table 2.1 - Individual Income Tax Returns with Itemized Deductions (Tax Year 2008), posted on the IRS website. Generally, this analysis expresses the typical deduction as a percentage of the taxpayers actual AGI. However, for taxpayers whose AGI is under $5,000, the typical column reflects average AGI and itemized deductions and does not fluctuate, because actual AGI for these taxpayers could be negative.
